Disclosure Regarding Real Estate Agency Relationships

Before you disclose confidential information to a real estate Licensee regarding a real estate transaction, you should understand what type of agency relationship you have with that licensee. Michigan law requires real estate licensees who are acting as agents of sellers or buyers of real property to advise the potential sellers or buyers with whom they work of the nature of their agency relationship.

Seller's Agent

A seller's agent, under a listing agreement with the seller, acts solely on behalf of the seller. A seller can authorize a seller's agent to work with subagents, buyer's agents and/or transaction coordinators. A subagent is one who has agreed to work with the listing agent, and who, like the listing agent, acts solely on behalf of the seller. Seller's agents and subagents will disclose to the seller known information about the buyer, which may be used to the benefit of the seller.

Buyer's Agent

A buyer's agent, under a buyer's agency agreement with the buyer, acts solely on behalf of the buyer. Buyer's agents and subagents will disclose to the buyer known information about the seller, which may be used to benefit the buyer.

Dual Agent

A real estate licensee can be the agent of both the seller and the buyer in a transaction, but only with the knowledge and informed consent, in writing, of both the seller and the buyer. In such dual agency situations, the licensee will not be able to disclose all known information to either the seller or the buyer. The obligations of a dual agent are subject to any specific provisions set forth in any agreement between the dual agent, the seller and the buyer.

Transaction Coordinator

A transaction coordinator is a licensee who is not acting as an agent of either the seller or the buyer, yet is providing services to complete a real estate transaction. The transaction coordinator is not an agent for either party and therefore owes no fiduciary duty to either party. The transactional coordinator is not the advocate of either party and therefore has no obligation to "negotiate" for either party.

Licensee Disclosure

I/we hereby disclose that the agency status I/we have with the buyer and/or seller is:

Seller's Agent (or agent for property owner with respect to leasing of the property)

Buyer's Agent

Dual Agent

Transaction coordinator

None of the above

THE ABOVE DISCLOSURE HAS BEEN MADE TO PROSPECTIVE TENANT/APPLICANT WITH RESPECT TO THE LEASING OF PROPERTY NOTED ON THE FRONT OF THIS APPLICATION.
